

Independent Contractor Agreement

(1099 Independent Contractor — Asset Recovery Agent)

This Independent Contractor Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into as of _____, 2026 (the “Effective Date”) by and between Foreclosure Recovery Inc., a Wyoming corporation with offices at 30 N Gould St, Ste R, Sheridan, WY 82801 (the “Company”), and _____, an individual (the “Contractor”). The Company and the Contractor are each a “Party” and together the “Parties.”

1. Independent Contractor Relationship

The Contractor is engaged as an independent contractor and not as an employee, partner, or agent of the Company for any purpose. Nothing in this Agreement creates an employment, joint venture, or partnership relationship. The Contractor is not entitled to any employee benefits, including health insurance, paid leave, retirement contributions, workers’ compensation, or unemployment insurance. The Company will not withhold federal, state, or local income tax or employment taxes (Social Security or Medicare) from amounts paid to the Contractor.

2. Services

The Contractor will perform asset recovery and surplus funds recovery agent services in connection with the Company’s Asset Recovery Agent Partnership program in which the Contractor has enrolled. The Contractor will control the manner, method, hours, and means of performing the services, will supply the Contractor’s own equipment, and may perform similar services for others, provided the Contractor meets the obligations of this Agreement and the program.

3. Compensation

Compensation is earned on the contingency and commission basis set forth in the Asset Recovery Agent Partnership program enrolled in by the Contractor. The Contractor is responsible for all costs and expenses incurred in performing the services unless otherwise agreed in writing.

4. Taxes and Form W-9

The Contractor is solely responsible for paying all federal, state, and local income and self-employment taxes on amounts received under this Agreement. As a condition of payment, the Contractor must complete and return IRS Form W-9. Because the Contractor is an individual / sole proprietor and has not formed an entity, the Contractor must enter the Contractor’s legal name and Social Security Number on the Form W-9 (an EIN is not used for a sole proprietor). The Company will issue IRS Form 1099-NEC to the Contractor as required by law for reportable payments.

5. Compliance with Law

The Contractor will comply with all applicable laws governing surplus funds and asset recovery, including state surplus-recovery statutes and fee limits, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and federal and state Do-Not-Call rules. The Contractor will not make any guarantee of recovery or misrepresent the Company or its services.

6. Confidentiality

The Contractor will keep confidential all lead data, claimant personal information, pricing, and business information made available by the Company, will use it only to perform the services, and will not disclose it to any third party. This obligation survives termination of this Agreement.

7. Term and Termination

This Agreement begins on the Effective Date and continues until terminated. Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without cause, upon written notice. Sections 4, 5, 6, and 8 survive termination.

8. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Wyoming, without regard to its conflict of laws rules. This Agreement, together with the Asset Recovery Agent Partnership program terms, is the entire agreement between the Parties on this subject and supersedes any prior understanding.

By signing below, the Parties agree to the terms of this Agreement.

Signature: _____

Name: _____

Title: Contractor

Date: _____

Signature: _____

Name: Corey Pearson

Title: Authorized Representative, Foreclosure
Recovery Inc.

Date: _____